

MIAMI'S UKRAINE SUPPORT BOX APPEAL!!

THEY NEED OUR SUPPORT

Imagine one day you have everything..... A normal life..... A home..... Family..... School..... Friends and then it's all taken away from you!! War has rained down on this innocent country with devastating affects to ALL.

WHAT can we do?

I have to. No I need to help these people but to do this I NEED your help. My idea is to send a box of support.

By making this gesture with a helpful gift box you will be helping families to know they are not alone in this war, giving them love, hope and faith.

By making a small or large support box together we can help make this happen.

My Daddy's transport company is delivering all donations to Poland.

Thank you all for your support, a little help will make a huge difference. x
